

KAISER WINS IDLE HOUR HANDICAP

Close Finishes and Ideal Weather Mark Day's Races at Lexington.

Lexington, Ky., September 21.—The seventh day of the Kentucky Association's fall meeting was marked by ideal weather, a large crowd, a better track and some close finishes. The feature event, the Idle Hour handicap, $500 added, was won by the favorite, Kaiser, with Colonel Cook two lengths behind, and Mack B. Eubanks in third place.

Otto, in the first race, paid nearly 5 to 1 to his backers, and Yanker, in the second, rewarded his supporters with odds of 3 to 1.

Ethel, the heavily backed favorite in the fifth, was beaten a length by King Olympian.

First race—six furlongs, selling—Otto, 109, 3x5; second, King Olympian, 107, 3x5; third, time, 1:17.
